LET YOUR HEART GLOW

Wear your Blush

This season we launch a new campaign. It is all about women. Who a woman is as an individual, what she loves, how she styles herself. It's about beauty and all its forms. It is also a step forward in our mission to embrace all the different women we are. To start a conversation about what it means to be a woman today.

We know that at the end of the day it's just a piece of jewellery, however it can give strength when you need it; help you connect with a memory or emotion, be a reminder of our femininity and our humanity. For some of us it is a cornerstone of our day, part of our quality time in the morning, and our deep feeling of relaxation when we come home and take it off. Or don't take off. We all have some pieces we hold too dear for that.

Thank you for sharing our journey. We hope you feel the warmth and pride that we do, the glow that we feel with each piece that we craft, and each opportunity to blush.

With love, from all of us at Blush

Dare to be seen

How do you feel? For so long, we have thought that it is better to hide our emotions, to show only what we think is expected. Yet it is so beautiful to be true to who you are and make your feelings known to the people you love. Feel cherished in connection and love and relax. Wear your emotions and Blush jewellery with pride. Do you feel a warm, pink, blissful feeling rising to your cheeks? Let's Blush. From the heart.

To blush - to go pink with joy, to glow.

Earrings

One of the most beautiful ways to add a finishing touch to your look is by wearing earrings: with or without charms, in zirconia, with diamonds or natural stones. A subtle sparkle occasionally peeking out from behind your hair, or a bolder look for all to see.

Personal love notes

Our jewellery feels personal, and it is. How we wear it, who gave it to us or who we give it to. Each piece has its own story. With engraving, there is an opportunity to commemorate that story in a special and personal way. This could be visible in a signet ring, or hidden in a locket. It might be initials, a date, a name or a message. Whatever it is that captures its special meaning to you. Real gold, made even more personal.
